

Equine Cranio Sacral Therapy and Somato Emotional Release with

E. Bailey Tune, L.M.T.
P.O. Box 1654
Shepherdstown, WV 25443

Bailey Tune, a licensed massage therapist, has specialized in craniosacral therapy and somato- emotional release since 1983. With a foundation in animal science and massage therapy she studied complementary healthcare with renowned physicians in the field.

Bailey's commitment to the profession has resulted in the innovation of craniosacral techniques and theories specific with horses.

She maintains a private practice in Shepherdstown, West Virginia where she continues her experiential research, developing and refining clinical applications for her human, equine and canine clientele.

She is the author of three books, Tuning In: Equine Craniosacral Therapy and Somato-Emotional Release, Spiritual Exercises for the Right Brain: Meditation in Action, and Craniosacral Therapy for Dogs. She is a columnist with a local newspaper and has several articles published in magazines.
